What to have ready

This is the list we would ask for first, each item tied to what Joint Accreditation publishes.

- Evidence that your team-based education planning and delivery has operated for at least the past 18 months (Eligibility [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/eligibility/]).
- A list of all activities delivered in the past 18 months, with those categorized as interprofessional marked, so you can see whether you reach 25% (Eligibility [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/eligibility/]).
- If you hold ACCME, ACPE or ANCC accreditation now, evidence that you are in good standing with it (Eligibility [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/eligibility/]).
- Planning records that show which professions took part in planning each activity and how they match the intended learners (Eligibility [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/eligibility/]; JAC 6, Criteria [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/requirements/criteria/]).
- Records of how you keep content valid and keep marketing and commercial influence out of the activities (JAC 12, Criteria [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/requirements/criteria/]).
- Your process for handling financial relationships, from identification through disclosure (JAC 12, Criteria [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/requirements/criteria/]).
- The current text of the Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, which JAC 12 incorporates (Criteria [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/requirements/criteria/]).
- A target cycle, June 1 or October 1, and its self-study and activity file due date (Accreditation Timeline [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/how-to-apply/accreditation-timeline/]).
- Counts of activities and learner interactions, which set your annual fee tier (Fees, effective February 1, 2026 [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/fees/]).
- Budget for the eligibility review and initial application fees (Fees, effective February 1, 2026 [https://jointaccreditation.org/accreditation-process/fees/]).
