What to have ready

Each item ties to a source named above.

- A list of every accreditation, certification and license you hold, with the standards edition each is assessed against, for example the NCCHC 2026 Standards (NCCHC [https://ncchc.org/ncchc-releases-2026-jail-prison-standards/]).
- Each recurring report you owe and its due date, such as an NCCHC Annual Maintenance Report (NCCHC [https://www.ncchc.org/applying-for-accreditation]).
- Each survey cycle and next survey window, including any DMEPOS reaccreditation at least once every 12 months (CMS DMEPOS Accreditation Guidance [https://www.cms.gov/files/document/dmepos-accreditation-guidance.pdf]).
- Each regulatory compliance date that applies to you, such as the 42 CFR Part 2 compliance date of February 16, 2026 (Federal Register [https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/02/16/2024-02544/confidentiality-of-substance-use-disorder-sud-patient-records]).
- If you run a compliance program, how it maps to the seven elements in GCPG Section III, which OIG describes as voluntary (HHS-OIG [https://oig.hhs.gov/compliance/general-compliance-program-guidance/]).
