What to have ready

Each item below ties to a federal rule quoted on this page, as linked, or to the line-specific texts your organization holds.

- A written description of the new service: what it is, where it will be delivered and to whom.
- The state licensing rules, accreditor standards or program rules your organization or counsel has identified for the line.
- Whether you will enroll in Medicare for the service, and the applicable enrollment application (42 CFR 424.510(a)(1) [https://www.ecfr.gov/api/renderer/v1/content/enhanced/current/title-42?part=424&section=424.510]).
- Whether the line needs a state survey and certification or accreditation before Medicare enrollment can complete (42 CFR 424.510(a)(1) [https://www.ecfr.gov/api/renderer/v1/content/enhanced/current/title-42?part=424&section=424.510]).
- The supporting documentation list for the Medicare enrollment application (42 CFR 424.510(d)(1) [https://www.ecfr.gov/api/renderer/v1/content/enhanced/current/title-42?part=424&section=424.510]).
- Your state's Medicaid enrollment and screening requirements for the provider type (42 CFR 455.410(a) [https://www.ecfr.gov/api/renderer/v1/content/enhanced/current/title-42?part=455&section=455.410]).
- If you plan to contract as a Medicare Advantage organization, your state licensure status as a risk-bearing entity and your compliance program documents (42 CFR 422.503(b) [https://www.ecfr.gov/api/renderer/v1/content/enhanced/current/title-42?part=422&section=422.503]).
- Your current policies, quality program and compliance program, which the new line has to fit into.
- Planned sites, staffing and payer strategy.
