What to have ready

Each item ties to the OPA Title X Program Handbook (December 2024), OPA's statutes page or your award.

- Your Notice of Award and its terms, which the Handbook says it "does not supersede."
- A current list of subrecipients and service sites, since the Handbook applies to "recipients, subrecipients, and service sites" (OPA Program Expectations [https://opa.hhs.gov/grant-programs/title-x-service-grants/about-title-x-service-grants/title-x-program-expectations]).
- Your plan for "monitoring the delivery of family planning services under the Title X project, including the monitoring and oversight of subrecipients" (Handbook [https://opa.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/2025-03/title-x-program-handbook-dec-2024.pdf]).
- Written agreements with each subrecipient.
- Clinical protocols and the standards of care they follow, against OPA's expectation of services "consistent with nationally recognized standards of care" (OPA Program Expectations [https://opa.hhs.gov/grant-programs/title-x-service-grants/about-title-x-service-grants/title-x-program-expectations]).
- Your procedure for reporting under state law, given the mandate that "no provider of services under Title X of the Public Health Service Act shall be exempt from any State law requiring notification or the reporting of child abuse, child molestation, sexual abuse, rape, or incest" (OPA statutes page [https://opa.hhs.gov/grant-programs/title-x-service-grants/title-x-statutes-regulations-and-legislative-mandates]).
- Referral, documentation and confidentiality procedures at each site, so they can be compared with the recipient's.
- If any site performs sterilizations, its procedures under 42 CFR Part 50, Subpart B.
- Your most recent Family Planning Annual Report submission, since recipients "Submit a Family Planning Annual Report (FPAR)" (Handbook [https://opa.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/2025-03/title-x-program-handbook-dec-2024.pdf]).
- Any prior self-assessment. OPA says its Program Review Tool "can also be used by Title X grant recipients as a self-assessment" (OPA Program Expectations [https://opa.hhs.gov/grant-programs/title-x-service-grants/about-title-x-service-grants/title-x-program-expectations]).
- Staff training records at each site.
- Your counsel's confirmation of which version of 42 CFR Part 59 and which court rulings govern your project now.
