How IHS works

- IHS drafts documents and program content; the client's staff and clinicians review, approve, adopt and submit them.
- IHS does not contact or submit to an accreditor or regulator on a client's behalf.
- IHS is a consulting firm; nothing it provides is legal advice.
- IHS does not publish its fees. Each engagement is scoped after a free introductory conversation.
- The phases of an engagement are described at www.integralhs.com/about/how-we-work.
